4. 6.8.2008 Heard.

The case relates to the murder of one Ramakanth Prasad who had left his house by informing his family members that he was going to purchase a teller with some amount of money. His dead body was found and the Officers of many Police Stations along with some Senior Officers of the Police Station made at spot enquiry about the injuries caused to the deceased. This petitioner Krishna Yadav was also questioned and he gave various statements and this is why he was suspected to be either to have killed the deceased or to have managed the killing.

There is no definite material evidence as regards the authorship of the murder. The police was still lurking in dispute whether it was this petitioner who had really killed lthe deceased or managed his killing. There might be a motive as appears the case but the circumstances appear too weak to justify further detention of the petitioner.

Let the above named petitioner be directed to be released from custody on his furnishing a bond of Rs. 10,000/-(ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bettiah, West Champaran, in Nautan P.S. Case No. 245 of 2007.
